

1. Special Tour Of Thomas Jefferson's Monticello

9:00–12:00

Meet with staff in Monticello's Education and Visitor Programs Department for a conversation about the Thomas Jefferson Foundation's interpretive approach. Conversation in the Visitor Center classrooms followed by a private tour of Monticello's galleries, the house, and select outdoor spaces.

Individuals registered for this program should arrive 15min prior to the 9:00 start time.

Cost: $20 (not included in registration fee)

Location: Fralin Docents will greet you at the Monticello Visitor Center

2. Boxed Lunch at Kluge–Ruhe

12:00 – 1:30

Choose from a selection of sandwiches and salads from local Charlottesville restaurant Hotcakes. Your pre-ordered lunch will be delivered to the Kluge–Ruhe. Please note there is not another lunch option on-site at the museum.

Cost: $14 (not included in registration fee)

Location: Fralin Docents will greet you at the Kluge–Ruhe Aboriginal Art Museum

3. Tour of Kluge–Ruhe Aboriginal Art Collection

1:30–3:30

The Kluge–Ruhe Aboriginal Art Collection of UVa is the only museum exclusively dedicated to Indigenous Australian art outside of Australia. Join Museum Educator Fenella Belle for a tour of the museum that models best practices of discussing Indigenous art with visitors, the opportunity to explore the museum's art storage space, and time for questions and discussion.

Individuals registered for this program should arrive 15min prior to the 1:30 start time.

Location: Kluge–Ruhe Aboriginal Art Museum

4. Tour of The University of Virginia with UGuides

3:00–4:00 or 4:00–5:00

Led by University students, go on a historical tour of Grounds, and learn more about Mr. Jefferson's University.

Individuals registered for these tours should arrive 15min prior to the scheduled time.

Location: Fralin Docents and a University Tour Guide will meet you at the lawn side of the Rotunda steps

5. Docent-led tour at The Fralin

3:00–4:00 or 4:00–5:00

Join Fralin docents on a dialogical tour of the current exhibitions at The Fralin.

Individuals registered for these tours should arrive 15min prior to the scheduled time.

Location: Meet your Docent in The Fralin Museum of Art Lobby

6. Wine Tasting at Jefferson Vineyards

3:00–5:00

Relax with other docents and explore Virginia wine history by going wine tasting at Jefferson Vineyards. Arrival and departure time is up to you! Wine is $10 per person paid to Jefferson Vineyards upon arrival.

Cost: $10 (paid directly to Jefferson Vineyards upon arrival)

Location: A Fralin Docent will greet you at Jefferson Vineyards

7. Saturday Check-in at The Fralin

3:00–5:00

Check-in and receive your Virginia Docent Exchange materials and Sunday workshop schedule.

Location: The Fralin Museum of Art

8. Cocktail Hour, Rotunda Dinner, and Keynote Speaker

5:30–8:15

Join us for drinks, hors d'oeuvres, and dinner in the University of Virginia's newly renovated Rotunda. Dr. Danielle Rice will deliver our keynote speech.

Cocktail Attire

Location: Fralin Docents will greet you on the Rotunda steps